SPUDHUNTERS

A TASTY DISCOVERY AT THE ROYAL MELBOURNE SHOW

CURIOUS ABOUT SPUDS?

SPUDHUNTERS is a free, exciting and interactive food education activity for children aged between 4 and 10 years of age. Roll up your sleeves and find the treasure, solve the puzzle and taste the prize! Learn about the life cycle of the potato and all about life as a potato farmer.

Children learn to identify potato varieties and learn how potatoes grow as they dig around in a mini paddock. Our resident chef will demonstrate simple and tasty recipes that are easy to make at home using freshly dug spuds.

THE ACTIVITY
LIKE THIS

1. A paddock full of spuds.

2. Dig in and find some.

3. 20 different sorts to see.

4. Find your potato on the charts and displays.

5. Learn what different types are good for.

6. Taste some lata tucker.

Slow Food Melbourne is a membership-based organization that lets people discover the joys of eating, enables people to understand the importance of caring where food comes from and how it is made.
